SAFETY
AND PROFIT.
If you are engaged in any pursuit which gives you an income which is dependent in any degree on the work you do with your hand or brain, then you need life assurance to protect your family, in case your premature death should cut this income off.
But if you can secure this protection for, say, 20 years, and then need money for your own use rather than assurance for your family, or if you have by that time become independent, through the accumulation of a capital, will it not be desirable to have your assurance on a plan which will give you a large cash return if you wish to give up your policy?
The Equitable's new Free Tontine Policy supplies both needs.

MR. SEEBER'S TREATISE ON ECONOMY.

Immediately before his accession to power Dr. Saenz Peña requested from Don Francisco Seeber a statement of his views on the economical position of the Republic, with such suggestions as he might think calculated to bring about a better state of things. The result is an elegantly printed volume of 500 pages, published by Mr. Jacob Peuser, which we commend to our readers, as it contains a good deal of valuable information and much sound advice. The book is in two parts, the first on administration, the second on finances, and we propose to give a "precis" of both, one after the other.

In the preface the author lays down the indisputable principle that taxation should be evenly distributed. In Buenos Ayres, on the contrary, as he shews, there is a multiplicity of taxes which press on the poor but not on the rich, on those who work but not on the drones of the social hive. Foremost among unjust taxes, he goes on to say, is the Customs Tariff which is so framed as to protect half-a-dozen industries, to make things dear for working-men and to fill the pockets of a ring of cunning patriots. As regards other taxes they are not fairly collected, that is some people have to pay them with the utmost "religiosity," but the collectors allow other persons to remain several years in arrear. This is the natural consequence of giving all public posts not to suitable persons, but to favorites or those recommended by "compadres."

Argentine Ministers and representatives abroad, with few exceptions, he considers mere figure-heads, an opinion in which most of our readers will cordially agree. The banking-system of the Republic is infamous, devised apparently for the ruin of all legitimate trade. Shinplaster banks are sown broadcast over the country, and sound joint-stock banks are persecuted and over-taxed. Year after year the volume of paper-money is expanded.

Thirteen of the Federal Provinces made loans in Europe, and then stopped payment They are at present hopelessly bankrupt.

Coming home to the National finances it is clear, says Mr. Seeber, to any man outside a lunatic asylum that the Moratorio compact of 1891 cannot be carried out, and that our friends in London (before Dec. 1893) must make up their mind to scale down either the capital or the interest of Argentine debt.

Cap. I. Administration. The present melancholy position of Argentine finances is due mainly to the deliberate connivance of Congress, in refusing to call the Government to account for expenditure outside the Budget. The sums thus spent without proper authority were excusable in the period of 12 years from 1862 to 1874, during the Paraguayan war, the revolts in Entre Rios etc , but the extravagance in late years, especially 1887-89, is utterly unpardonable. The following table shews the sums spent without authority from Congress :—

1862-68.....	2,500,000
1869-74.....	17,000,000
1875-80.....	12,000,000
1881-86.....	9,500,000
1887-89.....	37,400,000
Total.....	78,400,000

While this enormous amount of public money has been spent without authority thousands of persons to whom the Government honestly owes sums ranging from ten dollars upwards have been unable to get paid. No fewer than 12,300 creditors whose claims are fully admitted by Government cannot get their documents approved by Congress, without which formality nothing can be done. Some of these debts are 10 years old, but no funds are provided in the successive Budgets to meet these claims: the unfortunate creditors wear out their boots, then their bodies and souls, in hopeless efforts to procure sums of 50 or 100 dollars due them. Congress will not take up their case, because 12,300 accounts to be settled are more than any Senate or House of Deputies would have the courage to examine into, if even the span of human life were long enough.

It is not surprising, says Mr. Seeber, that all the Government offices are in the most deplorable confusion : the clerks come when they like, take mate, have visits of friends, and do little or no work. They should have regular hours, as in the private banks, and never be allowed to go "pasear" unless their work be done.

Public money is scandalously wasted in the items of stationery and printing. No country in the world uses such rich note-paper and envelopes. A certain house in Paris charged £4 sterling per hundred for embossed cards of one of the departments of the Casa Rosada. Blue-books are published in 3 volumes, which might be profitably condensed to one volume. Until the Gas Co. recently cut off the gas in the Government House for non payment it was common for the clerks to keep the gas burning all day.

Cap. II. Honesty. This is a word which should be printed on every door in the Government House. Heretofore public money was thrown out of the windows in the most reckless way. Guns, bridges, ammunition etc : in these articles millions were spent without consulting Congress. Still more shameful was it to see men in office gambling on the Bolsa, for the rise or the fall, on the strength of measures resolved on by Government and not yet known to the public. They were in a manner gamesters playing with loaded dice. All this time the men in office were not so greedy for themselves as to fill the pockets of hangers-on. A better atmosphere would prevail if Senators and Deputies were to serve their country without pay.

Cap. III. Corruption. The public offices are full of men who get in by the recommendation of friends. Some of them have disgraceful antecedents. The result is that the State Banks have been sacked, that the sanitary interests of Buenos Ayres are shockingly neglected, and that men drawing the public money are interested in houses of ill-fame. This extreme corruption is not wholly spontaneous : it has been promoted and fomented by gentlemen from Europe, sent out to Buenos Ayres to bribe and corrupt our officials of all degrees. Had we done right we should have sent the rascals to the Penitentiary. These same rascals are now telling the world that Buenos Ayres is a den of thieves.

Cap. IV. Court of Claims. In order to protect the rights of persons to whom the Treasury owes small sums a Court of Claims should be established, as in the United States. "Come to-morrow" is the reply which the 12,300 creditors mentioned above receive when they ask for their money; they wear out boots, and die in poverty. This is shamefully dishonest.

Cap. V. Red Tape. So interminable are the rounds in getting any document through the Government House that these documents get piled up. No Minister has the faintest idea of the number or amount of claims on his Department, which go to make up the Floating Debt. Every Minister has to sign so many hundreds of documents daily that he often signs with his eyes shut.

Is it a wonder that public money is wasted? The Nat. Government paid $17 per cubic metre of brickwork, when the School-Board was getting the same work done at $7. The Government paid no less than $450,000 for the foundations of the new Post Office. As for the Commissariat contracts, for the army and navy, they have become a by-word and a scandal.

Cap. VI. Public Officials. Although the Republic spends $10,000,000 yearly on education the public clerks are much below par. Many are ignorant, others lazy, but most of them wear diamond rings. A high functionary said publicly last week :—

"I have a battalion of incompetent clerks shoved into my office, because they were in destitute circumstances." Half the number, if well paid, would do better. The head of a department should be fearless in turning out bad clerks. Gen. San Martin said "I seek the enmity of all blackguards."

Here ends the first part of Mr. Seeber's Commentaries, and our readers will find that the second part is no less outspoken and to the point. "Rem acu tetigit.

OUR LONDON LETTER.
THE BROMPTON MYSTERY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Sept. 28th

What for some days has figured in the newspapers as the "Brompton Mystery" is not exactly solved, but it has taken a new and serious turn. Originally it was a question of the sudden death and subsequently of the supposed suicide of a young lady who, it appears from the evidence given at the inquest, was living as the wife of a Dr. Woodburn Heron. The inquest on the unconventional Mrs. Heron was held and adjourned for three weeks to give time for a post mortem examination of the body. No suspicion was attached to Dr. Heron, who was a man of reputed respectability and had held medical appointments in Jamaica and Africa and was at the time of Mrs. Heron's death still in the government colonial medical service. On Saturday last, after the inquest, Dr. Heron repaired to a private hotel in Craven Street, Strand. He was provided with a bedroom in the upper part of the house. It was observed by the servants that he seemed moody and excited. But he had given the name of Selwyn and no one in the house suspected who he was, although his own name and the description of him as a fine, handsome man with a large and heavily waxed moustache, were familiar to everyone from the reports of his evidence at the inquest. Before going to Craven Street Dr. Heron had shaved off his moustache. On Sunday afternoon, as he did not appear or answer to the calls of the hotel servants, the manager sent for the police. On breaking open the door, Dr. Heron's corpse was found stretched on the floor with the head reclining on a pillow. The throat was gashed from ear to ear. The razor the suicide had used was held so tightly in the dead man's hand that some force had to be employed to release it. The body lay in a pool of blood. From the evidence of bottles, memoranda in the deceased's handwriting, displaced furniture and other details the detectives discovered in the apartment, it would appear that Dr. Heron firstly tried to poison himself with morphia; which was, by the bye, the mode of death it was thought his reputed wife had selected. The morphia being too slow in its operation in the doctor's case, it is surmised that after walking about the room he went to the looking-glass on the dressing-table and made a scientific incision with a razor in his throat, but the cut was not effectual. He then took the sheets and pillows from the bed, and lying on the floor with his head comfortably resting on the pillows, he deliberately and in a most determined manner completed the operation without disturbing anyone in the house. Dr. Heron left in his apartment letters and visiting cards, which leave no doubt as to his identity. The persons—including a Dr. Stewart, of the colonial medical department—to whom his letters were addressed, will be called upon to give evidence at the inquest. But so far it is understood that nothing was found to justify the now very general suspicion of his complicity in the death of his reputed wife. This young lady was a music hall singer when Dr. Heron first met her some time ago. She sang under the name of Ruby Russell. Her real name was Marion Sharpe She was only 20 years of age at the time of her death. Dr. Heron, though a young man, was a widower. He had married when he was 18. On his return from Jamaica he purchased a practice at the East End of London, at West Ham, near the docks. He afterwards received an appointment from the Government in Africa—that is Gambia. Before leaving, his two children he had brought to England were sent back to Jamaica. Miss Ruby Russell then accompanied him to Gambia and was introduced by him to the Colonial world there as his wife. On the return of the pair to London some difficulties as to her status and recognition by his family connections appear as far as we know at present to have led to the supposed suicide of Mrs. Heron. But another unfortunate affair for the late Dr. Woodburn Heron's posthumous reputation, and bearing very strongly upon the question of his reputed wife's suicide, is that there was an inquest held in Jamaica upon the first and legally constituted Mrs. Heron.

There seems to have been another morphia business there, complicated with prussic acid, which led to the examination of the deceased wife's viscera, but to no further action on the part of the Jamaica authorities. The Jamaica coroner who sat at the inquest happens to be in London. Questions asked Dr. Heron at the Ruby Russell inquest seemed to startle him. The London newspapers represent the late Dr. Heron as a handsome, young fellow, standing about 5 feet 9 in , his wavy hair resting in curls on a fine forehead, and his delicate skin betraying nothing of a residence under an African sun. His fingers white and tapering were almost feminine in form and length. Several eyes were dimmed with tears when, with a choking voice and a world of meaning in his eyes, he declared at the inquest that he never intended to leave "Ruby." His manners are said to have been charming. An "intimate friend" informs us that he was of a good Jamaica family of Scottish descent. He belongs to the Herons of Galloway. His father, Mr. Heron, and his uncle, Mr. Woodburn, emigrated years ago to Jamaica, and are now wealthy planters. He was much liked at the Colonial office and he and his wife were very popular in Gambia. He was originally intended for the army and was sent to England to be educated for that profession. He, however, when a mere boy, fell in love with a young and accomplished girl, Miss Sophie Read, whom he married. Instead of studying for the army he went to Glasgow and entered the medical profession, in which he was acknowledged by his colleagues to be exceedingly deft as an operator. His colonial friends ascribe his suicide to grief at the death of Ruby, others think his mind was unhinged at the thought of having to resign his appointments, worth £600 a year, on account of the scandal of the revelations made at the inquest on Ruby Russell, whom he had introduced to the exclusive colonial society as his wife.

There is another little rumour concerning him which has been since denied, but it is valuable. He is said to have had Negro blood in him. That might account for the "curls" and many other things. Some of the mystery may be cleared up at the inquest on his body. Amongst his papers was a letter addressed "Dear Dolly." The letter was forwarded, and "Dolly" has turned up in the shape of a Miss Walker or somebody, a friend of Ruby's and of the same standing in society.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.
MORE ADOUT SANTIAGO.

Santiago still rules the roast, although everything is quiet in that distant province. The Interventor is able to eat his meals in peace. The latest news is that the Legislators met at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, in response to a summons from the Interventor. The last-mentioned delivered an eloquent speech, in which he boldly traced the main features of the situation, shewing that the first thing to be done was for the legislators to present their resignations. This the honourable gentlemen emphatically refused to do. General Arias then spoke. He implored the legislators to reconsider their decision, but the General's speech only irritated the honourable gentlemen, who renewed their protests and reiterated their decision not to resign. Dr. Costa then said that the attitude of the honorable gentlemen would place him in the necessity of overhauling their election, by which, of course, he insinuated that he considered their election illegal. The statement raised a storm of protests and one honorable gentleman started up, his eye in a fine frenzy rolling, and the forefinger of his punch-hand trembling with indignation, while his left was placed on what he styled his conscience, and said that he was not afraid of the scruinizing gaze of an interventor. On the contrary, he was desirous that the fierce light of publicity should be flashed over the antecedents of his election. His conscience was satisfied. He then resumed his seat for two minutes, cast an angry glance at the interventor, a defiant one at General Arias, and stalked majestically out of the room. The other honorable gentlemen followed him. Dr. Costa and General Arias were left alone, steeped in silent and profound meditation.

The foregoing is only one version. The following is another It is supplied by a reporter who buttonholed the Interventor and got the news from him. The Interventor, it appears, wanted to have a quiet unofficial chat with the Legislators and perhaps it was just as well he did not invite them to breakfast for that purpose. He merely sent round an invitation and asked them to meet him in the Cabildo at 3 p.m. Most of the honorable gentlemen turned up at the appointed hour. Dr. Costa was in the parlor chatting with General Arias, when the porter peeped in and said in a loud whisper: "Aqui vienen." The Interventor was rather puzzled at first, but the almost immediate trooping in of the honorable gentlemen removed all the doubts to which the porter's mysterious whisper had given rise. There was a general handshaking and finally each legislator found a chair and took a seat. Then the Interventor defined the situation and dwelt on the expediency of the honorable gentlemen offering themselves for re-election in order to facilitate his task. He did not ask them to resign. However, between offering themselves for re-election and resigning there is little or no difference, and the honorable gentlemen very naturally protested. They emphatically refused to court the popular vote. They knew what it was, and so did the polite Interventor. Then General Arias made a speeeh, a circumstance which shews that the meeting was entirely unofficial. The General put the fat in the fire, and the honorable gentlemen, after giving expression to another heart-felt protest, withdrew. Some of the legislators were very angry with General Arias for mixing himself up in affairs with which he had nothing to do. However, in view of the familiar and unofficial nature of the meeting, he had just as much right to speak as any other person, and no doubt he thought he was doing the Interventor a good turn.

DISCOVERY OF A HORRIBLE MURDER.

Our new Chief of Police is to be congratulated on the very brilliant and successful issue of an investigation which he ordered the other day and which has resulted in the discovery of a most horrible murder, committed as far back as 1889. The particulars of the crime are as follow :—

In the year just mentioned there lived in Barracas al Norte, an honest, hard-working gardener, who managed by dint of economy to put by a very fair sum of money. This man had a friend named Gallo, also a gardener, who knew that he had saved up money. Gallo formed the idea of getting possesion of this money and with that view he spoke to an intimate friend of his. The two discussed the project and finally decided to murder the man, for which purpose they conceived the following diabolical plan. The intended victim was to be invited to have a glass of wine and then asked if he would like to earn 6 dollars. On his consenting he would be informed that he had simply to help the other two to dig a deep hole in the quinta of which Gallo was gardener for the purpose of burying a dead horse which Gallo's master wanted to have interred in the garden.

This succeeded well. The victim accepted the invitation to a glass of wine and thankfully accepted the offer to earn 6 dollars. He was then informed that the work must be done that night, a condition he also gladly accepted. The three then (it was nighttime) proceeded to the end of Gallo's quinta. There they found pick-axes and spades. They all set to work and, in spite of the rain that was falling at the time, they made great progress. When the hole was over 6 feet in depth, the victim, who was in it, throwing up the earth, received a stunning blow on the head, and the two murderers buried him in the hole. Thanks to the rain, not a trace of the operation could be found the next day. The guilty two went to the victim's hut and divided the money. One went to Italy where, smitten by remorse, he gave himself up to justice in Italy and devulged the terrible secret. The Italian Courts through the Foreign Office filed an application for the arrest of the accomplice Gallo, who had remained here. On this application being sent to the police, Gen. Viejobueno, Chief of Police, chose a very intelligent official, Mr. Eloy Udabe, to make inquiries and endeavor to find the criminal. Mr. Udabe was not long in unearthing the monster, whom he found under an assumed name in Mar del Plata, married to the victim's sister! He will be brought to town to-day and in his presence the body of his victim will be exhumed.

THE LIGHTHOUSE ON CAPE SAN ANTONIO.

(San Clemente.)

This light, which is one of the most important on the East Coast of the Continent, was definitely illuminated on Wednesday the 12th inst. The structure was completed and the whole apparatus was in working order many months ago, but before putting on the light it was necessary to advise all shipping nations of its existence. At the same time it was determined to fix the location of the light-house with very great exactness. This has been done by a commission appointed by the National Government, and their labour extended over a period of six weeks. The Commission was under the direction of Commandante Oliva, who was assisted by Lieutenants Fernandez, Vallota, Moreno &c., and the expert work was intrusted to Lieutenant MacCarthey of the La Plata Observatory. The work done by the Commission reflects the very highest credit on these officers, and the light-house is now located with such exquisite care that it—in conjunction with the Observatories at La Plata and Cordoba—could be utilised as base points for a great survey of the country similar to the British Ordnance Survey.

It is unnecessary to enter into the technical details of the method by which the geographical position of the light-house was determined, but it may be mentioned that the Longitude is the mean of no less than 560 different Longitudes, and the Latitude of 80 different Latitudes. And as the possible error of these readings as worked out by the application of the "lesser square method" and by the theory of probabilities does not exceed 0.12 seconds, or about 3¼ metres, the Commission may be congratulated upon a piece of most brilliant astronomical and engineering work The transit instruments, theodolites, &c , by which Lieutenant MacCarthey made the observations were lent for the purpose by the Provincial Government from the Observatory at La Plata.

The light-house consists of a huge upright steel tube with spiral staircase inside. It is supported by a tripod of steel cylindrical legs, and the structure, which exceeds a height of 200 feet, is one of the highest of the kind in the world. The lamp and reflectors are of the first class order, and the light is visible a distance of about 20½ miles. The lantern is revolving, the flash being of 30 seconds duration followed by 30 seconds of partial obscurity. There are at present three keepers in charge, but an application has been made to the Government for a proper pilot boat and crew ; for, although the Lighthouse has been supplied with an ample store of cannon, rockets, and general life-saving appliances, the keepers have been left without any means of communication with the nearest telegraph station, which is in the neighbouring town of Ajó, a distance of over 15 miles.

The light-house is situated upon the extremity of a long promontory running due North from the mainland and a portion of which has been ceded free to the station by the concessionaires of the projected port at this place. It is of easy access from the Ocean or Estuary, as a natural channel of 2 fathom of water at Low Water runs close up under the promontory and is utilised by the coasters for the South when it is blowing hard outside, as it leads into splendid anchorage in about 3 fathoms in the lee of the land.

The exact location of the Light-house is :—

Latitude 36° 18' 22.42" South.

Longitude 1° 9' 46.05" East of La Plata Observatory.

Longitude 56° 44' 30.45" West of Greenwich.

Longitude 59° 4' 43.95" West of Paris.

Some excellent photographs of the structure are to be seen in Peuser's corner of San Martin and Cangallo.

BUENOS AYRES ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS.

The annual sports of the school took place in the large park attached to the school at Palermo on Tuesday 1st November.

Notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the morning, there was a very large attendance of parents and friends, and, as the weather improved towards the afternoon, the number increased considerably. After the sports, which, by the way, were contested exceedingly well and pluckily by both girls and boys, lunch was served in the large and handsome schoolroom, and the youngsters received bags of cakes and oranges, tea, etc. The prizes, which were numerous and very fine, especially the Challenge Cup presented by Mr. E. P. Rowland, a large inkstand given by General Julio A. Roca with a bronze bust of himself, a model screw steamer, a cricket set, etc., were then given to the successful competitors by Mrs. Thurburn. A pick-up game of football, which was well contested, brought the day's proceedings to a close. This school has always been very successful in its annual sports, but its best effort has even excelled the former ones.

We have pleasure in mentioning that a generous friend was so pleased with the sports and the behaviour of the young competitors that he has given £50 for the purchase of a Challenge Cup for next year.

The following is the result of the different events :—

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Tremendous news! On Monday next "sin falta," the Santiago of the Swamp question will be settled. Long life to Dr. Costa!

We've changed our mind and won't publish our Packet Edition till to-morrow, to give our dear London friends another day's news. The French steamers are getting very irregular, owing to the quarantine nuisance. The Bresil will not sail till Monday, mails closing at noon.

Great Lottery excitement yesterday. Number 8836 pulled off the $20,000; 5547, $5,000; 19076, 6250, 14963 and 16899 $1.000. We're not a cent richer than we were yesterday morning.

Great news! Hurrah! On Friday, 11th inst., a grand performance will be given by the "Tomba" Company at the San Martin Theatre in aid of the funds of the British and American Benevolent Society. The programme consists of the favourite comic zarzuela "Gran Via" and the Calleria Rusticana. There will also be solos by the leading artistes. For further particulars see advertisement on 3rd page.

Yesterday we had a visit from Don Guillermo Livingstone, who was one of the party in the Bay of Montevideo when we saved the life of Don Saturnino Unzue. He wishes us to correct the statement, as he says that it was he who saved Unzue's life. We cannot, however, make any such correction, as we have a most vivid recollection of that awful scene. Evans sprang to the side of the boat, and between Evans and Livingstone Unzue would certainly have been drowned but that we caught him by the collar of the coat and held him up till the boat righted. Mr. Unzue swore he never again would go on an excursion with "Ingleses", and he kept his word.

There was a Chicago blaze in the capital of Chile yesterday, and several houses ended in smoke.

Some uneasy news of the old kind from the Santa Catalina encampment was in the balmy evening air yesterday ; but nobody attached any importance to it.

The Columbia Skating Rink is coming into great favour and threatens to become the "furor" of fashionables. Ladies have taken to the pleasant and graceful exercise, and the Rink is daily more crowded in the morning hours when the sterner sex is excluded. The management have overlooked nothing; and alady is in attendance with all the paraphernalia to adjust hats and bonnets, mend ribbons, furnish pins, fans, and smelling salts if necessary : the only charge is what the fair skaters choose to give.

There will be a cricket match on the old ground of the Quilmes Club on Sunday next at 2 p.m. Polo Members v. the Quilmes Cricket Club. There will be the final practice game for the polo teams, who play in the Belgrano tournament, on Sunday at 9 a.m. on the new ground. Mrs. Morkill will kindly preside over the refreshments, on the ground of the cricket match.

We wish to remind our readers of the concert this evening at the American Church. The concert will commence punctually at 8.15, so as to conclude at 10, thus enabling those living on the Southern and Ensenada lines to catch the last train. Programme can be seen in another column.

Boating is going ahead. They have a Regatta Club in San Nicolas now. Señor Dam. Valdez President. We wish it success.

In reply to a question as to whether England or Italy has the greater number of war-ships afloat at the present day, we should say that there can be no comparison between them. The "Dictionary of Statistics" gives England 372. France 346, and Italy 140 in 1889 ; and since then England has launched more fighting ships than any other Power.

The civilian clerks in the War Office have been replaced by men of the sword. The decree was issued yesterday.

One of the nicest tributes seen in the Recoleta Cemetery on All Souls Day was the double garland of flowers placed by the Centro Naval on Admiral Brown's tomb

"Love rules the court, the camp, the grove, and earth below and Heaven above" but it never sewed a gray patch on a husband's black trousers. That isn't love, that's revenge.

The Gleaner says :—"Mr. and Mrs. Barnett will be down in Buenos Ayres from Rosario at the end of this month, when they will be welcomed at a reception to be held by the Y.M.C.A. and Y. W.C.A., Mrs. Barnett being president of the latter

We note that Mr. A. E. Holder has started a "Christian Literature Depot" at 718 Calle Corrientes. We hope it will serve to counteract the effects of the woeful lot of highly un-Christian literature sold in this devil-take-the-hindmost city.

Ramsarum Sing, a Brahman of Benares says :—"John Bull lives in a safe and happy country and climate ; he eats and drinks. He has one chief god-Mammon." Ramsarum, my man, what's the use of singing out unpleasant truths in this blunt way? Go to the Chicago Exhibition and see the chief god John Bull's cousin has set up for himself, called Awlmaightydollar.

We're awfully glad to learn from our Asuncion exchanges that the English Cosmos Club there is in a very prosperous condition. It counts 150 members, and adds to their number every month. The Cosmos counts men of all nationalities amongst its members, though founded exclusively by Englishmen. It is the only club worth the name now in Asuncion : the "Familiar" is going to the dogs owing to too great familiarity with "monte" "truco," "ferro-carril" and baccarat; and the "inolvidable Progreso" kicked the bucket long ago.

We would advise the old English gentleman who rides a grey mare in the early morning to take lessons in riding Argentine horses; otherwise, from the scene we witnessed yesterday in Plaza Victoria, he and his horse will part company, and leave many fair ones in the old country to mourn his loss.

The Senate had no particular work to do yesterday and, therefore, no quorumed. It met in secret, however, and made Mr. Michael Cane Lord Mayor of Buenos Ayres.

The Galles, or Galleys (the latter the best name for him) swindle amounts to $300,000 as already known; and it is said that there is a big "llapa."

We have to apologize to the Rev. Father Mullcady for making a layman of him yesterday. It was a clerical error. We also owe an "amende" to the "unfortunate agents" for sending them to 176 San Martin instead of the same number in Maipu, to look for their Freemans. It was all the fault of the unearthly long telegrams from Santiago of the Swamp.

They have male chambermaids in some of the Cairo hotels, so a contemporary avers. A newly-married lady visitor on ringing for the chambermaid was surprised at a well-dressed Frenchman, with the air of a refined and educated gentleman, presenting himself in her room. Supposing him to be the proprietor, she said, "I wish to see the chambermaid," to which he replied in his best English, "Madam, she am I."

We had unavoidably to hold over yesterday a report of the Sports at Mr. Hutton's High School, and it will be found in another column. The youngsters can lay the flattering unction to their souls that, for their size and years, they have no equals in this country ; and a wealthy spectator was so impressed that he sent them a cheque for £50 to buy a Challenge Cup for next year's meeting.

We had the pleasure yesterday of receiving a p.p.c. card from the eminent tenor Sir Raphael Garni—Cavaliere Raffaele Garni—and sincerely wish him a pleasant voyage back to sunny Italy.

What's this we hear? The Wise Men, or the Lord Mayor, or the Director de Paseos, or somebody or bodies with their heads in the wrong place, intend to keep up the enclosure of Plaza San Martin put up for the Kermesse. The public will be heard from on this subject.

Ramallo wants some Locust Extinction cash. The insect's ungrateful memory has kept him away from the place since 1874 : but his conscience appears to have stung him of late and he has generously turned up, to give an opportunity of putting a few shinplasters in circulation. This is kind of him.

Whoever thinks that he can get along n-icely in this life—whatever he may do in the next—without a copy of Icely's Railway Directory in his pocket will find out his mistake, sooner or later. It is an invaluable book for all railway travellers in this country. In summer it has an enormous advantage over all other Guias, as the name on the cover suggests the North Pole and is thus conducive to coolness in the Dog Days.

The Jews at Gibraltar, on death occurring at any house of theirs, pour away all the water contained therein, on the supposition that the Angel of Death may have washed his sword in it.

The performance of the Rose Maiden by the Choral Union on Wednesday night at the indispensable and irrepressible Operai Hall was the greatest hit this popular musical society has yet made. It was a veritable treat, and the genuine enjoyment of the audience was expressed in frequent hearty, applause. Miss Lumb sang "Bloom on, bloom on my Rose" in a way she alone can accomplish. The gem of the evening was the duet "I know a Rose-bud shining," sung with such perfect expression by Miss Nicholson and Mr. Higgins that the house came down and they had to repeat it. Miss Nicholson's singing quite enthused the audience, and with reason. We did n't sleep a wink all night thinking of and humming the charming chorus "Mid the waving rose trees." The Bower of Roses near Pendemere stream could not hold a candle to the Bevy of Rose Maidens on the stage at the Operai, and we dreamt, between sleeping and waking, that we had them all together in our button hole, right over our editorial heart. The chorus and orchestra were excellent, and we must again congratulate the indefatigable director Mr. H. B. Owen.

The editions of books printed 200 or 300 years ago are almost entirely free from typographical errors, which may be attributed to the fact that early publishers were generally eminent scholars, and themselves gave much attention to the revision of their proofs. After reading the proofs they frequently turned them over to other scholars with the request to revise and correct, and as the printer's time was then deemed a matter of small consequence a perfection was attained which is seldom equalled by modern printers.

The Rural Society is getting up another Flower Show. Any exhibitor who attempts to put on his plants their scientific name, to bewilder the public, will be lynched then and there.

It is such a long time since a "changador" has been fined for horse-play at the street corners that take got Mr. Carabassa's name into the scheme. The market, ever confiding, has got frightfully stuck, and his protested pagarés and "cauciones" abound. On last Saturday evening when the heavy business of the bank was closed a dangerous and almost disastrous fire burst out under the desks of the Manager and sub-Manager of the Royal Insurance Company where the Bomberos found suspicious supplies of inflammable matter ready to start the blaze. Luckily the fire was put out in time to save the destruction not only of the insurance office but also of the valuable Cedula deposits of the burst-up bank. The business of this South American Clearing House was not confined to Cedulas or coupons. The Manager bought not long ago in the harbour of Montevideo the fine Spanish exhibition steamer the Conde de Villana, at present in Dock No. 3; and it speaks badly for the Flores people, as he occupied several important Government posts out there. It was currently rumoured to-day that he has left for La Plata en route for Milan.

Messrs Eastmann and Kenny sold to day 10,000 kilos of Lincoln cross wool from Salto at $7.50 per 10 kilos; another parcel of same quality from Suipacha was sold by them at the same price. They also sold 7,000 kilos of heavy North wool, defective, at $5.50m/n and 1,500 heavy matadero at 67 cents.

Mr. Olmi sold yesterday at auction ten leagues of land situated in San Rafael, Province of Mendoza, at the rate of 74 cents per hectare, say $1,850m/n per league. Buyer, Mr. William Morgan, of Quilmes, who secures a great bargain.

We take the following from the Montevideo Times:—

Mr. J. Oldham, Manager of the Western and Brazil Telegraph Company, has applied to the Municipality for authority to change the present overhead line for a subterranean line, laid three feet under the surface of the ground, from the offices in calle Cerrito to Calle Santa Teresa, beside the English Church, where it will join the subterranean cable.

We learn that in view of the yellow fever in Santos, the Royal Mail Company has telegraphed to send out the "Elbe" without touching at that or other infected ports, thus avoiding quarantine.

The Central Argentine Company (Limited) has issued a summary of its operations for the half -year to 30th June, 1892. It is satisfactory in that it shows trade within the Argentine Republic to be reviving. The net income was 92,678*l.*, or 19,000*l.* more than in the same half of 1891. Of this, however, 87,804*l.* was absorbed by fixed charges, as follow:—Debenture Stock interest, 21,000*l.*; Buenos Ayres Northern rent, 21,410*l.*; and Buenos Aires Western Annuity, 45,394*l.* So there was nothing left for the Stockholders; but traffic receipts continue to improve, and the increase in the current half-year to 25th September has amounted, approximately, to 74,096*l.*

The Argentine Refinery has sold in various lots 22000 bags of sugar delivered in the port of Rosario at 6.30 and 6.40 per 10 ks.

Messrs. Lazaro Repetto and Son have purchased 1700 selected oxen of 3 years from the establishment of N. Elejalde in Juarez at $29 per head.

Dr. J. M. Terrero sold to J. and M. Buchanan 864 squares of camp at Estacion Craig, F. C. S., with estancia house etc. for the sum of $54,000 m/n.

The special train left this morning for the La Plata dock to bring up the Bresil passengers. Madame Imilda, the Rev. Mother of the Caballito convent and college, has arrived in her. We offer this distinguished lady a hearty welcome on her return to the Plate, and her numerous friends will be delighted to see her in her splendid college in Caballito.

Mr. Mendez was warmly welcomed on 'Change on his return from his estancia at Alfalfa, in the South; he says the camps and crops look splendid. Mr. Fredericking, the new manager of the German Bank, has written to his friends stating not to expect him out before next July, when we suppose the Bank will have moved into its new quarters. They are expecting Dr. Pellegrini in London to arrange the Argentine debt, at least so some of the London papers say.

Dr. Luis Costa, brother of Dr. Costa, Interventor, who arrived to-day from Santiago del Estero, was welcomed on 'Change. He is very much sun-burnt, and says the heat up there is simply awful. Everything goes on smoothly now, owing to the able policy of the distinguished Interventor. We believe the whole Santiagueñan question will be settled by Monday next.

The news from Santa Fe is most unpleasant; the fine flour mill of Messrs. Milesi Hermanos in one of the colonies, is put up for auction by the tax collector to collect the illegal grain tax. It seems the tax is only 3000 nats, but with the fines imposed it reaches 33,000 dollars, which is most monstrous, and we trust the Federal Judge will at once stop the auction.

The fine Italian steamer Orione comes with 1,500 passengers from Italy. This shows how the current has again changed in favor of the Plate. All the Italians are again coming back to Buenos Aires.

Mr. Martin Meyer, the well-known hide-broker, was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his return from Europe. He arrived in the German steamer Itaparica and had to undergo eight days' quarantine. All were glad to see him looking ten years younger after the trip.

The Captain of the fine Kosmos steamer Scarpa gives a sumptuous breakfast to-morrow to a party of friends on board in the Darsena. She is a splendid steamer and has exceptionally comfortable accommodation. We join the courteous commander and popular agent Mr. Sattler in a "Hoch sollen sie leben."

Advices from Devoto and Venado Tuerto in the South of Santa Fe are most satisfactory. There is not a locust in the district and the grasses are plentiful, cattle are in fine condition and wheat is growing well. The alfalfa fields are exceptionally fine and farmers state that a prosperous season is ahead.

Messrs. Duggan sold this morning in the Central Produce Market the second consignment of Don Nicolas Lowe's wool, from Mercedes, at 7.80$ per 10 kilos. The price paid for this splendid parcel shows the great prostration of the wool market.

Don Patricio Ham sold this morning:
18,000 kilos Lincoln-cross wool with much "carretilla" at 7$.
12,000 do. fine Rambouillet wool from the North at 6.60$.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank closed at 37 % discount; those of the National Bank at 8 to 10 % discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were quoted at 19.80 % of their face value.

The Government have given orders to pay Messrs. Tezanos Pinto and Co. 13,771$m/n for work done over the Rio Grande of Jujuy.

The gold market ruled dull, but steady at the second ring; the premium for to-morrow closed at 209 %; a dull business was done for the end of the month, closing at 208.20 %. Stocks and shares were more or less stationary, except Catalinas, which were lively and firm.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring to-day:—

The following extract from a correspondence written in Buenos Ayres and published in the London papers may interest this market:—

"It matters little that people say that European capitalists will not lend more money to this country. Such warnings are mere idle talk, and have been uttered often before. Look back at the past, and see with what plausible ingenuity Argentina has covered up former shortcomings, an obtained unlimited loans and credits. An excuse like that made in 1874 with regard to the lack of accommodation for shipping in the Riachuelo was sufficient to loosen the purse-strings of the London banker. Then railways were so necessary to develope the pastoral and agricultural resources of the country; more loans were obtained, the railways were built and then sold, and the money for them has—well, disappeared. The crowning 'coup d'état' was in connection with the establishment of the Provincial banks; how was it possible to carry on the business requirements of the Republic without banking facilities? London swallowed the bait, with the result that once more the ingenuity of the Argentine triumphed. And so will be in the years that follow. Possibly the interest on the External Debt will be allowed to drop into arrear for a few years. For purposes of expediency it will then be paid for a little while, and, whilst the glamour of the resumption of payment is still effective, the opportunity will be seized upon to incur fresh obligations on some plausible and ingenious excuse. As in the past, the money will be advanced nominally for some distinct purpose; but the plea on which it is obtained will probably be of such a nature as to preclude any necessity for a careful investigation into the actual resources of the country or the true needs of the inhabitants. The Argentine loves to deal in generalities, and to enter into detail, especially in such a matter as the raising of a loan, would be distinctly distasteful, and every effort would be made to avoid incurring such, to him, unnecessary annoyance and trouble."

With reference to the proposed new loan of Uruguay the Financial Times says:

"We are forced to believe that some anonymous Frenchman, professing to represent a French banking-house, has seriously proposed to the Uruguayan Government a scheme for defrauding its bondholders, and that the Uruguayan Government has been simple enough to agree to it, provided the bondholders consent to be fleeced. The author of this scurvy joke has carried it so far as not merely to get it sanctioned by the Congress of Uruguay, but to invite the Uruguayan Committee in London to confer with him upon it. The Committee stretched a point in the way of politeness when they received him with out preliminary inquiry as to his objects and his credentials. Had he begun by submitting to them the text of the law since published inviting the bondholders to accept "flying stamps" in place of gold, that interview would hardly have lasted three minutes. There would have been no adjournment necessary for further information.

"When the representative of "one of the principal banking houses of Europe" reads the comments of the English Press on his loan scheme he will probably have little appetite for a second meeting with the Committee. Jokes should not be over done even in Uruguayan finance, and this one has had its day. We regret for the sake of Uruguay that its politicians should be so utterly destitute of humour and so eager to borrow at any price as to have let themselves be thus hoaxed."

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidence, it circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

THREE GOOD REASONS

Why Sheepmen everywhere should use

Alexander Robertson's

HIGHLAND SHEEP DIP.

Best Summer Protection for Sheep.

Cures Scab.

Exterminates Vermin.

First.—It is an honest preparation. I publish the formula of its composition openly. I make no attempt to trade on the credulity of my patrons, who, with the formula before them, can form a shrewd opinion of the efficiency of the "Dip" and its value in Cash. I range myself alongside the Farmer, and make his interests my own.

Second.—It is a reliable sheep dip. That it Kills Vermin goes without saying—any Sheep Dip worthy the name will do that; but the Highland Sheep Dip does more,—it has a continuous destructive effect on all insects hatched after Dipping, and largely prevents future contagion from infected sheep. The strongly adhesive nature of the Rosin and Grease, which are the most powerful Waterproofing materials possible to introduce into a sheep Dip, "fix" the Dip in the fleece, forming, when dry, a film capable of resisting moisture, on every individual fibre of the fleece, so that when the fleece has been soaked by rain the sheep easily frees itself from all superabundant moisture by a simple shake.

Third.—It is the most economical Dip. For $1.75 gold Makers of Powder Dips give about 10 lbs. of Powder. This quantity of Yellow Powder Sheep Dip contains 2 lb Arsenic, 2 lb. Soda, 6 lb. Sulphur. These Dips kill vermin certainly; but their use is disastrous to the farmer—the harsh, dry feel of the sheep's fleece shortly after being bathed in these Alkaline Dips arises from the fact that the wool has been Robbed of its Natural Grease, which the Soda has converted into Soap, which, in turn, is washed out by rain. The farmer suffers a corresponding loss in the weight of the Wool, and the Sheep, robbed of Nature's protection, is left defenceless against cold and rain.

Soluble Fluid Dips—whose name is legion, though their nature is one—have an average cost of $1.30 gold per gallon, and consist of tar Acid Oil (2s o/o), 6 lbs. Soap, Soda and Water 4 lbs. These Dips have to be used at nearly double strength to kill vermin, even then they have no effect on the eggs; and, indeed, from the volatile nature of Tar Acids their effect can never be anything but temporary, no matter what strength they are used. The one thing in their favour is their free solubility in cold water, which is but a poor return for the need of greater frequency of Dipping, or the other alternative of flocks suffering from the effects of a temporary Dip.

The highland Sheep Dip contains in each 15 lbs. (1½ gallon), costing 1.75 gold 2 lbs. Arsenic, 6½ lbs. Tar Acid Oil (25o/o), 2 lbs. Carbolic Acid (95o/o) 4½ lbs. Rosin, Grease, etc., i.e., all the Arsenic in 10 lbs. Powder Dip, and all the Tar Acids in 2 gallons Fluid Dip, these insecticides being combined with materials of unrivalled Waterproofing Power.

No other Sheep Dip Maker in the world has ever put an equally serviceable preparation in the hands of Sheep Farmers, or has given an equal value in material for the price charged.

THORNCLIFFE

TRADE MARK

We the undersigned, hereby bear testimony to having witnessed the dipping trials made with the above dip on two flocks of sheep badly infected with scab, at Mr. Patricio Ham's Estancia "Santa Margarita" (Capitan Sarmiento F. C. C. A.), on the dates of May 21st and June 13th 1892.

The dip was mixed in the proportions of one part of dip to forty parts of cold water.—The Sheep and lambs alike were assed through the bath, and we noted that not one single case of poisoning occurred, nor were the sheep uneasy afterwards, proving that the dip contains no poisonous or burning properties. —At the end of June we testify to having examined these sheep and found them absolutely cured of scab with only once dipping. We noticed also that they had improved remarkably in condition and that the wool shewed no signs of discolourment. We have every confidence in recommending the "Thorncliffe Sheep Dip" as one of the safest and most effective dips that has ever come under our notice.

Campo en Córdoba

La mitad de la estancia denominada El Chato.

16,457 hectareas de magnifico campo dividido en 20 lotes de 625 hectareas cada uno y otro de 3987 hectareas. Campo de superior calidad para la agricultura, rodeado de importantes Establecimientos formados en la Estacion Ausonia del F. C. de Villa Maria a la Carlota y Rufino, cruzado por el arroyo San Jose y conocida por de Cabral, de agua permanente.

Tiene lotes de algarrobo y en el distrito existen los grandes alfalfares de los Funes, Diez y Cia, y las colonias de Dominguez, Ortiz, Ferreyra y otros. Con la infima base de pesos 10 hectarea.

El Viernes 4 de Noviembre a las 2 p.m. en nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482, remataremos por orden terminante de su dueño, el magnifico campo mencionado, cuya ubicacion no puede ser mas importante, pues solo dista 3 leguas de las Estaciones Villa Maria y Ballesteros del F. C. C. Argentino e igual distancia de la gran Estacion Villa Nueva, cabecera del ferro-carril de este punto a la Carlota, y a solo 25 cuadras de la Estacion Ausonia del F. C. a Rufino.

Tenemos de este campo los mejores informes: hace 150 años que esta poblado; abunda la gramilla y el trebol; rodeado de Colonias é inmejorable para la agricultura. Actualmente hay 8 puestos arrendados sin contrato.

El arroyo Cabral que mencionamos no tiene ahora gran caudal de agua por estar estas interceptadas por un tajamar cuya destruccion no se ha pedida hasta ahora por estar salpicado de lagunas permanentes

Como se ve por los datos que dejamos expuestos, este campo reune condiciones inmejorables tanto por su calidad, pastos y aguadas, como por su ubicacion y faciles medios de viabilidad y transporte.

Llamamos por tanto la atencion de los ganaderos y agriculturas por la infima base de la venta; 10$ la hectarea y el fra
